NEWS RELEASE

PELANGIO EXPLORATION REPORTS RESULTS OF ANNUAL MEETING

TORONTO, Ontario (June 22, 2022) – Pelangio Exploration Inc. (PX:TSX-V; OTC PINK:PGXPF) (“Pelangio” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that all matters proposed by management were approved at Pelangio’s annual meeting held Wednesday, June 22, 2022 (the “Meeting”).

At the Meeting, shareholders of Pelangio re-elected Ingrid Hibbard, JC St. Amour, David Mosher, Kevin Thomson, and Al Gourley to the board of directors. The shareholders also approved the reappointment of its auditor and reapproved the Company’s stock option plan. No additional business was brought before the Meeting.

Neither TSX-V nor its Regulation Services Provider (as that term is defined in the policies of the TSX-V) accepts responsibility for the adequacy or accuracy of this release.

About Pelangio

Pelangio acquires and explores prospective land packages located in world-class gold belts in Ghana, West Africa and Canada. In Ghana, the Company is exploring its two 100% owned camp-sized properties: the 100 km² Manfo property, the site of eight near-surface gold discoveries, and the 284 km² Obuasi property, located 4 km on strike and adjacent to AngloGold Ashanti’s prolific high-grade Obuasi Mine, as well its Dankran property located adjacent to its Obuasi property. In Canada, the Company is currently focused in Ontario at its Dome West property, situated some 800 meters from the Dome Mine in Timmins and its Gowan polymetallic project, located 16 km east of the Kidd Creek Mine. See www.pelangio.com for further detail on all Pelangio’s properties.
